

Audio Theatre: Tragedies of Ambitious Men

The Psych Drama Company is offering two audio plays, Macbeth and Cat on a Hot Tin Roof, streaming on-demand now through October 25 via OnTheStage.com.

These audiostreamed performances mark the 10th anniversary for the Psych Drama Company, which focuses on the psychologically therapeutic aspects for those involved in making theater reality. Headquartered in Braintree, the theater works with artists around the world, and the original score for Macbeth was a collaboration with composers from the Marin Držić Theater in Dubrovnik, Croatia.

Put in your headphones to get the full surround sound effect as you traverse the twisted minds of two of Shakespeare's most infamous characters. Or listen to the love and loss in Tennessee Williams' Pulitzer-prize winning play. The Psych Drama Company has clearly put substantial effort into producing original scores and multilayered soundscapes. Listen in and let us know what you think. Only available through October 25.
