

No Gluten? No Problem.

Hidden behind a little red door in Pawtucket, Craft Burgers and Beer (342 East Ave) is a gem for gluten-free eaters. This South of the Border burger decorated with fresh jalapeños, guacamole and jack cheese is covered in an avocado crème fraîche that makes this a decadent entree with just the right amount of kick. Paired with the quality gluten-free bun and Craft's mashed potatoes without gravy, this substantial meal is one that I often revisit.
