

MotifTV Coming Soon

We believe in expanding media opportunities - so one of the new things we'll be launching this year is MotifTV - video productions that give you more insight into some of the things we're writing about.

This project is in Beta - so, the bugs are NOT worked out yet. But if you're into watching your arts news instead of reading it - here's a preview!

MotifTV - our first run down of interesting things coming up.

Film run down - a MotifTV segment by Rosemary Pacheco.

CCCP does Ten31 (it's like a secret code!)

Gallery Night Providence - follow DebraLee and Caitlin on this trolly ride of artisticism.
